Sec. 814 of the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act (16 U.S.C. 1274) is amended by adding at the end the following new paragraph: "(16) CACHE LA Poudre, Colorado. The following segments as generally depicted on the proposed boundary map number PS-56 and dated March 1986, published by the United States Department of Agriculture, each to be administered by the Secretary of Agriculture; except that those portions of the segments so designated which are within the boundary of Rocky Mountain National Park shall continue to be administered by the Interior Department.

"(A) Beginning at Poudre Lake downstream to the confluence of Joe Wright Creek, as a wild river. This segment to be designated the "Peter H. Dominick Wild River Area".

"(B) Downstream from the confluence of Joe Wright Creek to a point where the Cache la Poudre River intersects the westerly south-north line of the west half southwest quarter section of quarter 1, township 8 north, range 71 west of the sixth principal meridian, as a recreational river.

Such revisions to the general management plan for the park shall assure that no development or use of parklands shall be undertaken that is inconsistent with the designation of such river segments as a wild river. For the purposes of the segments designated by this paragraph, there are authorized to be appropriated $500,000 for development and $2,500,000 for land acquisition.

"TITLE VI—HENRY'S FORK OF THE SNAKE RIVER, IDAHO

"SEC. 701. This title may be cited as the 'Henry's Fork of the Snake River Protection Act of 1986.'
On September 12, 1986, Senator Peter H. Dominick of Colorado added an amendment to the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act of 1986, directing that the river be considered for possible designation. The Forest Service began studying the river for designation in 1977. The draft environmental impact statement and proposed recommendations of the scientists for the upper reaches of the river, were issued for public comment in early 1980 and resulted in over 1,300 comments. In the spring of 1985, the White House recommended that 62 miles of the Cache La Poudre be designated. The bill, before the Senate today, which was worked out by a consensus of northern Colorado long-term interests, would designate 75 miles of the river.

The Cache La Poudre River is a marvelous unique, free-flowing body of water representing the largest remaining stretch of wild river in the United States east of the Rocky Mountains. Beginning at the Continental Divide in Rocky Mountain National Park, the river flows east through Roosevelt National Forest and the Colorado cities of LaPorte, Fort Collins, and Greeley, before joining the South Platte River. Beginning at the river's source at Poudre Lake in Rocky Mountain National Park, the legislation would preserve the river through the town of Poudre Park. In honor of the late Senator Dominick's contribution to this designation, the bill would declare the first 44 miles of the river as the “Peter H. Dominick Wild River Area.” Overall, the legislation will designate 31 miles of river as wild and 44 miles as recreational.

The legislation also expressly provides that nothing in it would affect storage and hydroelectric projects downstream of the designated portions of the river, and also includes authorization for land acquisition from willing sellers along designated portions of the river. Private property rights are protected by the bill, with acquisitions of public rights-of-way and scenic easements occurring only if the owners wish to sell. The legislation would additionally grandfather existing water developments to insure that conflicts in the maintenance and management of those projects will not occur.

This amendment is identical to H.R. 3547, which was introduced in the House by my colleague Congressman Hawkins Brown, on October 10, 1985. I commend him in particular and all of the parties involved in the negotiations for their spirit of cooperation and success in balancing the unique environmental values of the Poudre River with Colorado's need to conserve and manage its limited water supplies.

This is the kind of cooperative attitude that can resolve many basic difficulties. Whatever they work out, I suggest that the issue of Federal reserved water rights needs to be expressly addressed and not left to interference by some court of law. I recommend this legislation for passage by the Senate today as a sincere effort to resolve the conflicts that surround this proposed designation. This proposal has been drafted with a precise effect in mind and what is not expressly said in the bill is not intended. Moreover, I trust that Congress' intent is clear enough in the bill that it shall never even become the subject of litigation.

Also incorporated in this amendment is language to authorize an exchange of the trust for public lands. This provision agreed to by all parties involved. It has the support of the trust for Public Lands and the Forest Service, as I understand. It would direct consummation of a land exchange which would place in Federal ownership a private inholding along the river.

This exchange has been analyzed in a Forest Service environmental assessment, wildlife report, and decision document. It was found to be environmentally sound and in the public interest. It has undergone the congressional review required by Forest Service regulations. It is also supported by the House sponsors of the Cache La Poudre Wild and Scenic River bill. Finally, the diverse interests which have helped to shape this bill—including landowners, water districts and environmental groups—reviewed, and either endorsed or did not object to, this exchange.

PROTECTION FOR THE WEST BRANCH OF THE FARMINGTON RIVER.

Mr. WEICKER. Mr. President, I am pleased to note the passage today of H.R. 4350, legislation to designate the West Branch of the Farmington River as a study area for inclusion in the National Wild and Scenic River System. The passage of H.R. 4350 represents 6 years of hard work by the members of the Connecticut congressional delegation to obtain protection for the Farmington, a magnificent natural resource that is treasured by the entire State.

The passage of this bill, which is co-sponsored by my colleague from Connecticut, Senator Domenici, demonstrates congressional recognition of the outstanding qualities of the West Branch of the Farmington River. The West Branch is an essentially free-flowing 23-mile long segment of the 600-square-mile Farmington River watershed. The river supports Connecticut's largest trout fishery and is part of the Federal Atlantic salmon restoration program. The river's corridor includes natural areas that support a variety of rare and endangered species, agricultural lands, two State parks, and five State forests.

Upon passage of H.R. 4350, the National Park Service will convene a study committee composed of representatives of State and local government and citizens groups to prepare a study management plan. This plan will define long-term goals and objectives to guide future decisions affecting the river. During the study period, the river will be protected by a moratorium on all federally funded or funded activities and projects having a negative impact on the river. The study process should take less than 36 months.

Once the management plan is complete, the Governors and the Legislatures in Connecticut and Massachusetts will vote on whether to send the river on for Federal consideration for inclusion in the Wild and Scenic River System. It is my hope that the West Branch of the Farmington River will be included in the National System within a few years.

Mr. President, I would also like to take this opportunity to thank the chairman of the Subcommittee on Public Lands, Reserved Water and Resource Conservation, Mr. Wallor, for his assistance in moving this bill through the Senate Energy Committee. His cooperation was invaluable to our efforts to bring this bill to final passage in the Senate this year. The State of Connecticut sincerely appreciates his help.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the amendment in the nature of a substitute. The amendment (No. 2801) was agreed to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on the engrossment of the amendment and third reading of the bill.

The amendment was ordered to be engrossed and the bill to be read a third time. The bill was read a third time. The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment (No. 2805) was passed. Mr. Dole. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

Mr. BYRD. Mr. President, I move to lay that motion on the table.

Mr. Dole. Mr. President, I am pleased to yield.

AMENDMENT NO. 2802

Mr. Dole. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Judiciary Committee be discharged from further consideration of House Joint Resolution 60, to designate National School-Age Child Care Awareness Week, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A joint resolution (H.J. Res. 60) to designate the week beginning September 1, 1985, as "National School-Age Child Care Awareness Week."

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the joint resolution.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFEREES—H.R. 5233

Mr. WEICKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate insist on its amendment to H.R. 5233, the fiscal year 1987 Labor-Health and Human Services, Education, and related agencies appropriation bill, request a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses, and the Chair be authorized to appoint joint conferes on the part of the Senate.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The authority has previously been granted.

Mr. WEICKER. Is the Chair in a position to announce the names of the conferes.

There being no objection, the Chair appointed Mr. WEICKER, Mr. HATFIELD, Mr. STEVENS, Mr. ANDREWS, Mr. RUDMAN, Mr. SPECTER, Mr. MCClURE, Mr. DOMENICI, Mr. PROXMI'RE, Mr. BYRD, Mr. HOLLINGS, Mr. CHILES, Mr. HUDSON, Mr. ISOYRE, and Mr. HARKIN conferes on the part of the Senate.

NATIONAL SCHOOL-AGE CHILD CARE AWARENESS WEEK

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Judiciary Committee be discharged from further consideration of House Joint Resolution 60, to designate National School-Age Child Care Awareness Week, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A joint resolution (H.J. Res. 60) to designate the week beginning September 1, 1985, as "National School-Age Child Care Awareness Week."

AMENDMENT NO. 2802

Mr. Dole. Mr. President, I send an amendment to the desk on behalf of Senator Hawkins.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The amendment will be stated.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

The Senator from Kansas (Mr. Dole) for Mrs. Hawkins, proposes an amendment numbered 2802.

On page 2 line 3 delete "September 1, 1985" and insert in lieu thereof, "September 15, 1986."

Mrs. HAWKINS. Mr. President, the amendment that I am offering to House Joint Resolution 60 would designate the week beginning September 15, 1986 as "National School-Age Child Care Awareness Week." This designation is particularly timely not only because millions of latchkey children will be entering school during the week of September 15 but also because legislation to authorize a program to encourage the development of school-age child care programs in the States will be sent to the President for his signature that week. That legislation, S. 2241, provides for authorization of $20 million a year for 4 years for the State Dependent Care Development Grants Act.

The limited Federal funding that is available through this act is not intended to fund all the before- and after-school child care programs that are needed to care for this Nation's latchkey children. The legislation is a
